Express Who You Were Thought to Be

Future Skills - Get Fit for the Shift

The world we know is changing fast and will do so even more. How do I as a therapist, teacher, coach or manager facilitate the changes in the lives of those who depend on my guidance? Am I myself ready for the step that lies ahead? If you always knew that you are here for a good reason, you may get fit for your future task with the weekly webinars. More information: www.together21.com

Free Yourself in One Combined Action

Why do I constantly judge myself and others in a negative way? What would I need to change in order to walk my path in joy and lightness? Why do I commit myself to partners that fail to make me happy? What is wrong with my body? These and more of your questions can easily be answered through our combined effort and the support of spiritual helpers. Ask for an appointment with Susanne.

Finally and Safely Arrive through Soul Grounding

Do you or anybody you know, feel at the wrong place and live with the wrong family? No need to worry! Susanne clarifies with you the deeper reasons of your coming here through soul connection. Besides all other ages, teenagers and young adults especially profit from this work as it makes growing up easier and life more attractive; it is also great for babies who seem to 'not be here yet'.

You Are Thought to be Healthy!

We are all thought to be healthy

My deep compassion is with you, should you not belong to those who live in a strong and healthy body. Nevertheless I have to say:

Every Human Being is Thought to Be Healthy

At the age of 16 Susanne Triner got seriously ill and was told she would have to depend on medication for the rest of her life. She refused the pills after 6 months of living like a vegetable and instead began studying philosophy and mysticism. She learned and practiced healing methods from all over the world and eventually healed herself completely.

She worked with thousands of people in different countries and cultures. She shares what she has learned and continues to learn from others.

She cooperates on a deep level with you, when freeing the misunderstandings at the root of the disease.

The methods of Susanne Triner bring essential changes to your life and yes, they may even shake you thoroughly.

Those who work with her, walk a unique path to personal change and empowerment with a strong, encouraging partner.

What Is Karmic Straightening?

Grace is a good expression when it comes to the explanation of the karmic straightening. It deletes your own karmic patterns and the ones of your family and tribe. It frees the misunderstandings and conflicts you carry with you from ancient times. It does so within a few seconds only, even without touching. The result is seen immediately: harmonized shoulder blades, aligned leg lengths and a straight spine. This is how you can start your life anew!

after

When we humans turn to ourselves with a loving and supporting attitude, every act of grace can happen. The healing is done in a group of people so that all can support the process, see the wonders and joyfully celebrate them together.

In Freedom and Responsibility

The karmic straightening has an impact on body, mind and soul.

Take the time to feel inside whether you are ready for the adjustment. Nothing happens if you are not. After the healing process you may notice an increase of energy, self-healing and regeneration power; a lightness in being. Body, mind and soul are free to unfold and live their new potential.

Sustainability

Happy people all over the world show proof of the efficacy of the spiritual straightening. The healing process is sustainable when the individual learning process of the past is understood and the person can attune to the new level of consciousness.

Please Take into Consideration

Susanne Triner clearly states that she is neither a medical doctor nor a therapist.

There is no procedure for a medical diagnosis and her work does not replace medical treatments or therapy.

What we do together is sustainable healing. If you can say 'yes' to it, wonders will happen.

Costs

The suggested price for the once in a lifetime karmic straightening is USD 150.

For all other individual treatments we follow the hourly wage of USD 70.

Ask for alternatives: no one was ever rejected.
